HCW Announces Caesars Republic Scottsdale General Manager, Joe Iturri

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (Aug. 31, 2022) – National real estate development and property management company, HCW, is thrilled to announce Joe Iturri has been appointed as General Manager of Caesars Republic Scottsdale, the 11-story, 265-room hotel and conference center scheduled to open Q1 of 2024.

Iturri brings nearly 30 years of hospitality experience to Caesars Republic Scottsdale, previously serving as General Manager of Saguaro Scottsdale for nine years, the opening Director of Sales and Marketing at W Scottsdale for six years, and Regional Director of Revenue Management for all of Starwood’s Southwest hotels for 13 years. During his tenure with Starwood, he was also a leader in their process improvement effort, acting as a “Black Belt” in Six Sigma at the Phoenician Resort.

“Joe has been a pillar in the Scottsdale and Phoenix market. We are very excited about Joe leading the Caesars Republic team” stated Richard E. Huffman, Chief Executive Officer and President of HCW.

A Scottsdale resident with longstanding roots in the community Iturri serves on many boards in the community, including Vice Chair of the Board at Experience Scottsdale and Education Chair at the Arizona Lodging and Tourism Association’s (AZATL). Joe formerly sat as Board Chair for the non-profit organization STARS - Scottsdale Training and Rehabilitation Services.

When Iturri - a graduate from University of Nevada Las Vegas - is not working, you'll likely find this outdoorsman spending time with his wife and two daughters, fly fishing, traveling or enjoying water sports.
